

Santa Clara Law Santa Clara Law Digital Commons

Protection of Cultural Property in the Event of Armed Conflict

Law Library Collections

9-1-2002

Provisional Programme for the International Experts Meeting on the Return of Cultural Properties and the Fight Against Their Illicit Trafficking

Republic of Korea

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.law.scu.edu/cultprop>

Part of the International Law Commons

Automated Citation

Republic of Korea, "Provisional Programme for the International Experts Meeting on the Return of Cultural Properties and the Fight Against Their Illicit Trafficking" (2002). Protection of Cultural Property in the Event of Armed Conflict. Paper 25.
<http://digitalcommons.law.scu.edu/cultprop/25>

This Conference Proceeding is brought to you for free and open access by the Law Library Collections at Santa Clara Law Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Protection of Cultural Property in the Event of Armed Conflict by an authorized administrator of Santa Clara Law Digital Commons. For more information, please contact sculawlibrarian@gmail.com.

International Experts Meeting on the Return of Cultural Properties and the Fight Against Their Illicit Trafficking

(30 September through 3 October 2002, Seoul, Republic of Korea)

Provisional Programme

Monday 30 September

Registration

Official Opening

Panel I : Return of Cultural Property Displaced during Occupation and/or Armed Conflict

Part One

Legal and moral grounds for return – Lyndel Prott, Australia

The positions of the country that has suffered the loss and the country that is the current owner of the property – Toshiyuki Kono, Japan

Return of cultural property under international customary law and the 1954 Hague Convention – Guido Carducci, UNESCO

Part Two

The returns to Greenland : a case study – Peter Pentz, Denmark

Restitution of cultural property displaced during the Second World War-The case of Germany – Stefan Turner, Germany

Current developments in Europe concerning cultural heritage looted during the Nazi period and the Second World War – Patrick O'Keefe, Australia

Tuesday 1 October

Panel II : A Case Study between France and the Republic of Korea for the Oekujanggak Books

Part One

The origin and value of Oekyujanggak Archives, its storage conditions prior to the arson and looting by the French Navy in 1866, and its current status - Tae-jin Yi, Korea
The reality of diplomatic efforts between Europe and Asia – numerous cases but few successes – Lyndel Prott, Australia

Return of the Nok sculptures from France to Nigeria - Folarin Shyllon, Nigeria

Part Two

Legal analysis on the Oe-kyujanggak debates – Choong-Hyun Paik, Korea
The French perspective – Marie Cornu, France

Panel III: Reinforcement of International Cooperation for Restitution of Cultural Property

The role of INTERPOL in the fight against the illicit traffic in cultural property and its role in the return to its country of origin – Jean Pierre Jouanny, INTERPOL
Museological perspective on the restitution of cultural property – Boa Rhee, Korea
The Frederick Schultz case – an example of international cooperation between police, archaeologists and legal experts – Richard Ellis, U.K.

Wednesday 2 October

Panel IV : Preventing Illicit Trafficking of Cultural Property – the International Perspective

International cooperation to decrease illicit trafficking of cultural property – Patrick O’Keefe, Australia

International legal mechanisms : the 1970 UNESCO and 1995 UNIDROIT Conventions – Guido Carducci, UNESCO

The role of the ICOM network and its work against illicit trafficking – Amareswar Galla, ICOM

Panel V : Preventing Illicit trafficking of Cultural Property – the East Asia Perspective

The prevention of illicit trafficking in cultural property from an East Asian perspective – Keun-Gwan Lee, Korea

China’s protective measures to combat illicit trafficking – Shuzhong He, China

Cooperation between Asian and European police and customs officials to prevent trafficking and the use of commercial data bases to track and return cultural objects – Richard Ellis, U.K.

Visit to the Korean Folk Village in Yong-In City

Thursday 3 October

Consideration, finalization and adoption of recommendations

Visit to the National Museum and the folk Museum